

ONTARIO PROCESSING VEGETABLE INDUSTRY 2020 BURSARY APPLICATION

Multiple bursaries are offered each year to provide financial support and recognition to individuals pursuing post secondary education with an interest in a career in the Ontario processing vegetable industry.

The successful recipients will be selected by a committee comprised of industry officials. Two bursaries are awarded in memory of farm leaders in the processing vegetable industry, Jim Whitson and Ken Epp. The Jim Whitson Bursary is awarded specifically to a student attending Ridgetown College, and the award in memory of Ken Epp receives an additional $1,000 from the fund established in his name by OPVG.

Eligibility Requirements:

- Applicants must be a resident of Ontario and registered as a full-time student at a college or university (proof of registration required), entering the second, third, fourth or postgraduate year of study related to the processing vegetable industry
- Applicants should preferably have recent work experience (either summer or full-time) in some area of the Ontario vegetable processing industry
- Official transcript of most recent marks (college or university) to be attached to this application
- Essay describing education and career goals within the Ontario processing vegetable industry (maximum 2 pages)

Candidates may be requested to participate in an interview with the selection committee.

Applications to be submitted no later than October 15, 2020 to the address below or via email to opvg@opvg.org
